

'Core Of The World Festival', Gödör Club Budapest, 19 - 22 January

Monday, 17 January 2011

" The Core of the World Festival lasting for several days each January is dedicated to all the arts. Renowned Hungarian pop bands and young artists from different branches of the arts participate in the festival which has been organised since 1999. The Exhibition of Young Artists (Fiatal Művészek Kiállítása) is held traditionally within the framework of the festival.

The mission of the organisers is to provide high standard entertainment for the youth in the first month of the year when there are no other significant events. This multicultural event, unique of its kind, is hosted by the Gödör Klub and exhibition space located in central Budapest.
